BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

AMENDMENT 15 TO B. A. I. ORDER 287.—RELATIVE TO FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE IN CATTLE, SHEEP, OTHER RUMINANTS, AND SWINE

Effective on and after May 26, 1924

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., May 26, 1924.

Under authority conferred on the Secretary of Agriculture by section 1 of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 1264), the quarantine established by B. A. I. Order 287, dated February 23, 1924, and the amendments thereto, on the following portions of counties in the State of California is hereby revoked, effective on May 26, 1924:

All that portion of Kern County except premises upon which foot-and-mouth disease has existed.

All that portion of San Joaquin County except premises upon which foot-and-mouth disease has existed.

All that portion of Stanislaus County lying north of the Stanislaus River.

All that portion of Tulare County except the area located within a boundary line beginning at Tulare and running along the highway in an easterly direction to Lindsay, thence running southerly along the Southern Pacific Railroad to Terra Bella, thence running along the highway one-half mile south of Terra Bella in a westerly direction to Pixley, thence running in a northerly direction along the Southern Pacific Railroad to Tulare.

All that portion of Contra Costa County lying east of a line beginning at the intersection of Tassajara road with the Alameda County line, thence running north along Tassajara road over the mountain to Morgan Canon road, thence running northwesterly along Morgan Canon road to Marsh Creek road, thence running northwesterly along Marsh Creek road through the city of Clayton to Kirker Pass road, thence running along Kirker Pass road to Black Diamond Way road, thence running along Black Diamond Way road through the city of Pittsburg to New York Slough.

All that portion of Tuolumne County except the area within a boundary line starting at the west boundary line of the Stanislaus National Forest where it crosses the Middle Fork of Stanislaus River and running south along said National Forest line to the South Fork of Stanislaus River, thence running northeasterly along the South Fork of Stanislaus River to Strawberry Lake, thence running southeasterly to the Yosemite Park following drift fences which form the southwest boundary of Strawberry range and the northeast boundary lines of the upper Hull, Clavy, Rosasco, and Park ranges, thence running southerly along the west boundary of Yosemite National Park to the main Tuolumne River, thence running southwesterly along the main Tuolumne River to the west boundary of Stanislaus National Forest, thence running south to Tuolumne-Mariposa County line, thence running along the Tuolumne County line westerly then northerly to the point of beginning.

This amendment, which, for the purpose of identification, is designated as amendment 15 to B. A. I. Order 287, shall become and be effective on and after May 26, 1924.

Done at Washington this 26th day of May, 1924.
Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.
